Significant Business Disruptions (SBDs)

Our plan anticipates two kinds of SBDs, internal and external. Internal SBDs affect only our firm's ability to communicate and do business, such as a fire in our building or the death of a key member of the firm. External SBDs prevent the operation of the securities markets or a number of firms, such as a terrorist attack, a city flood, or a wide-scale, regional disruption. Our response to an external SBD relies more heavily on other organizations and systems, such as the brokerage firm(s) we use.

Approval and Execution Authority

Adam Gould, a supervisory person, is responsible for approving the plan, for conducting the required annual review, and has the authority to execute this BCP.

Additionally, copies have been stored in Adam Gould's home at 1415 Indiana Street Suite 301, San Francisco, CA 94107.

Clients' Access to Funds and Securities

Our firm does not maintain custody of clients' funds or securities, which are maintained at our brokerage firm. In the event of an internal or external SBD, if telephone service is available, our investment adviser representatives will take customer orders or instructions and contact our brokerage firm on their behalf, and if our Web access is available, our firm will post on our Website that clients may access their funds and securities by contacting them.

Data Back-Up and Recovery (Hard Copy and Electronic)

Our firm maintains its primary hard copy books and records and its electronic records at:
2339 Third Street Suite 41
San Francisco, CA 94107
(415) 464-7533

Adam Gould is responsible for the maintenance of these books and records. Our firm maintains the following document types and forms that are not transmitted to our brokerage firm: Investment Policy Statements, Client Contracts and other related documents.

The firm backs up its electronic records weekly by external hard drive backup, and keeps a copy at secure off-site location of jump drive backed up monthly.

In the event of an internal or external SBD that causes the loss of our paper records, we will physically recover them from our back-up site. If our primary site is inoperable, we will continue operations from our back-up site or an alternate location. For the loss of electronic records, we will either physically recover the storage media or electronically recover data from our back-up site, or, if our primary site is inoperable, continue operations from our back-up site or an alternate location.

Operational Assessments

Operational Risk

In the event of an SBD, we will immediately identify what means will permit us to communicate with our clients, employees, critical business constituents, and regulators. Although the effects of an SBD will determine the means of alternative communication, the communications options we will employ will include our Website, messaging applications, telephone voice mail, e-mail, etc. In addition, we will retrieve our key activity records as described in the section above, Data Back-Up and Recovery (Hard Copy and Electronic).

Mission Critical Systems

Our firm's "mission critical systems" are those that ensure client communication, access to client accounts and trading systems. More specifically, these systems include the office computer systems.

We have primary responsibility for establishing and maintaining our business relationships with our clients. Our brokerage firm provides the execution, comparison, allocation, clearance and settlement of securities transactions, the maintenance of customer accounts, access to customer accounts, and the delivery of funds and securities.

Our brokerage firm contract provides that our brokerage firm will maintain a business continuity plan and the capacity to execute that plan.

Our brokerage firm represents that it backs up our records at a remote site. Our brokerage firm represents that it operates a back-up operating facility in a geographically separate area with the capability to conduct the same volume of business as its primary site. Our brokerage firm has also confirmed the effectiveness of its back-up arrangements to recover from a wide scale disruption by testing.

DOGPATCH CAPITAL

Recovery-time objectives provide concrete goals to plan for and test against. They are not, however, hard and fast deadlines that must be met in every emergency situation, and various external factors surrounding a disruption, such as time of day, scope of disruption, and status of critical infrastructure—particularly telecommunications—can affect actual recovery times. Recovery refers to the restoration of clearing and settlement activities after a wide-scale disruption; resumption refers to the capacity to accept and process new transactions and payments after a wide-scale disruption. Our brokerage firm has the following SBD recovery time objectives: recovery time period of critical, core trading functions [e.g., within 4 hours]; and critical, non-core trading functions [e.g., within the 24-72 hours] following a disruption.

Our Firm’s Mission Critical Systems

Trading

Currently, our firm enters trades electronically or telephonically to our brokerage firm. Alternatively, we place customer orders by fax, etc.

In the event of an internal SBD, we will enter and send records to our brokerage firm by the fastest alternative means available. In the event of an external SBD, we will maintain the order in electronic or paper format, and deliver the order to the brokerage firm by the fastest means available when it resumes operations. In addition, during an internal SBD, we may need to refer our clients to deal directly with our brokerage firm for order entry.

Client Account Information

We currently access client account information via the brokerage firm website. In the event of an internal SBD, we would access client information via fax correspondence, alternate phone systems, etc.

Alternate Communications with Clients and Regulators

Clients

We now communicate with our clients using the telephone, e-mail, our Website, U.S. mail, and in person visits at our firm or at the other’s location. In the event of an SBD, we will assess which means of communication are still available to us, and use the means closest in speed and form (written or oral) to the means that we have used in the past to communicate with the other party. For example, if we have communicated with a party by e-mail but the Internet is unavailable, we will call them on the telephone and follow up where a record is needed with paper copy in the U.S. mail.

Regulators

We communicate with our regulators using the telephone, e-mail, U.S. mail, and in person. In the event of an SBD, we will assess which means of communication are still available to us, and use the means closest in speed and form (written or oral) to the means that we have used in the past to communicate with the other party.

Regulatory Reporting

Our firm is subject to regulation by the state of California. We now file reports with our regulators using paper copies in the U.S. mail, and electronically using e-mail. In the event of an SBD, we will check with the SEC and/or other relevant regulators to determine which means of filing are still available to us, and use the means closest in speed and form (written or oral) to our previous filing method. In the event that we cannot contact our regulators, we will continue to file required reports using the communication means available to us.

Death of Key Personnel

The following personnel are identified as “Key Personnel” without which it would be difficult or impossible to continue operating the firm and/or properly service clients:

Adam Gould, Day-to-day operations.

If some event made it impossible for any person listed above able to continue to service the firm, CWAL would implement the following: Clients of the firm are provided contact information for any and all custodians who hold their accounts, Clients should be able to obtain similar services from these firms and their custodial accounts would not depend on the well-being of the key personnel at this RIA.

Updates and Annual Review

Our firm will update this plan whenever we have a material change to our operations, structure, business or location or to those of our brokerage firm. In addition, our firm will review this BCP annually, to modify it for any changes in our operations, structure, business, or location or those of our brokerage firm.
